Princeton April Free 796-2855

I do believe you will need the whole pot this week with a straw. Don't bother with the cuppa! It's gonna be a "potta" instead.

First on the bit parade is the Princeton Elementary School. I received an email saying that the 8th grade has given the school a digital frame as their class gift. The frame is in the window by the office and has pictures of various events that have taken place in the school. They invite you to come check it out. An awesome gift, you guys.

Next is a report from Michele Cochran-Barnes Accelerated Reading Group's trip to Boston. They are back and had a BLAST while there. Let's see if I can get this all straight.....

If you watch NESN, you know they were in the Dunkin' Donut on May 20th because they were on TV, not once but twice. Thanks to Jaycie's dad, Jay, they were holding a sign egging Jason Bay to hit them with his best shot. Dennis Eckersley & Don Orsillo commented that they were setting the standards a little too high. They were "only" in the 50th row. It is claimed that the group says it was their presence that brought Big Papi his first home run of the 2009 season. Well, I wouldn't doubt that for a minute.

The group's means of transportation throughout the city was the "T". They got to relearn their colors fast. Blue lines to orange to red. The kids got very up close and personal with many Bostonians, some of which weren't very skilled in etiquette or blessed with Downeast manners.

The main reason for their trip, The Freedom Trail, was great. The tour guide was entertaining and pointed out many historical details to the book they read, "Johnny Tre-main." An interesting fact they learned was, almost anywhere you step in Boston Commons there is a dead person, in some way associated with the American Revolution, buried there. So they had a very educational experience, as Michele says, "In more ways than one!"

The group wants to send huge thanks to their communities that supported them in their fund raising: Princeton, Waite and Grand Lake Stream as well as many others in Washington County. To quote Michele: "Without you, it would only have been a dream, not a dream come true."

The news is still rolling in! My computer is running out of ink to write the column! Oh, wait - no ink required.

Family and friends gathered at the Baptist Church to help Jordan Netzer celebrate his graduation from UMO. The young man has commuted to Orono for the past 3 years since moving to Princeton with his wife, Donna (Carle) Netzer and son, Ben. Jordan graduated Summa Cum Laude with a degree in History and Anthropology. Jordan received many honors throughout his years of studying. They included graduating Senior of the Year in both History and Anthropology. His parents, Dwight and Darcy Netzer from Minnesota and his grandparents Gary and Diane Baker from North Dakota traveled to join in on the celebration. Ernest and Ellen Carle, as in-laws, are very proud of him and his accomplishments. Congratulations, Jordan!

On an informative note, especially to all you fire departments out there, I have info on a site to help with fund raising events. I have had the privilege to converse with a gentleman with a heart the size of our Washington County. He goes by the name Chef Matt and he makes/produces some kick-butt BBQ sauce. Recipes are also posted on his web site. Chef Matt has decided to help out firemen everywhere by making his mild "gourmet" sauce available for fund raising. I won't go in depth but suffice to say, the "deal" is awesome! Reviews are terrific and my few correspondences with him, show him to be kind, generous and very knowledgeable. You truly need to go to "FireFightersBBQ.com" Chef Matt will work with you and help you get started. His ideas include wristbands and t-shirts. Once at that site, you find his other site posted in the commentary. The gentleman has a vision to build support for the firefighters everywhere. I encourage everyone to check them both out.

Spring has truly sprung! I had my first meeting with the black fly division of Rt. 1. I just wanted to say, Hey! They just wanted the walking buffet. April - the other white meat. It's what's for supper. I have more bites than the fisherman do dropping a line over the town bridge when perch are running. No joke!

Some of my "snowbirds" have informed me that our lit-made cookies was brought by the crew.

I'd like to acknowledge the following Indian Township School students who gave freely of their time to the Cannell family. They are Toby Tomah, Charles Tomah, Michael Sockabasin, Walter Sockabasin, Darrin Clement, Joseph Socobasin, Horace Duffin, William Loia, Devin Hall, Dora Sockabasin, Eddy Tomah, C.J. Brown, Dylan Newell, Nathan Francis, Roger Sockabasin, and Raymond Tomah. Kci woliwon, wasis-sok!

More recently, efforts to help Joanne and Ken include Indian Township School staff cooking for her weekend guests and returning to help clean upon their departure. Friends of the Cannell's have also risen to the occasion. I'd like to remind people that acts of kindness can even be as simple as a phone call or a card in the mail. Anything and everything that can be done to help others is always greatly appreciated. So think of what you can do for this family or anybody.

The Grade 8 Celebration Banquet held May 19 in the Indian Township School Cafeteria started with activities led by Lori Joy of the Maine Transition Network and Vicki Gagner, an ITS teacher. Students and parents completed a SNOWS pamphlet and shared their results with each other about Strengths, Needs, Opportunities, Worries, (and) Strategies related to entering high school. A lasagna dinner with all the trimmings was prepared by school cook Husa Eagan and served with the help of Alice Hurlburt and Kelly Lank. High school representatives from Calais High School, Woodland High School, and Lee Academy were on hand to sign students up for fall classes.

Here's a list of graduating seniors. From Calais High School are Kristian Lonseth and Richard Sabathus. Julia Nicholas graduates from Woodland High School. Camisha Doten, Sadie Newell, and Heidi Sappier will graduate from Lee Academy. At Camden Community School graduates Justin Socobasin. Congratulations, ladies and gentlemen.

Go get your calendars. Upcoming dates to note are Indian Township School Science Fair Thursday, May 28 beginning at 8 a.m.; Grade 1 and 2 field trip to Greenland Point also on May 28; Princeton Elementary School students in grades 6-8 visit ITS and the Wellness Committee participates in the Relay for Life on Friday, May 29; Junior High takes their field trip to Greenland Point and Grades 3-5 hold their awards ceremony at 1 o'clock on Monday, June 1; Junior High holds their awards ceremony at 10 a.m. and the school sports banquet takes place at 5 p.m. on June 2; Camp Kieve comes to ITS on June 3 for grades 6-8; 8th grade graduation is at 6 p.m. on June 4; Grades 5-7 participate in "Step-Up Day" Friday, June 5; Grades 3-5 have their field trip to Greenland Point and pre-school have a cook-out with culture class on Monday, June 8; kindergarten graduation and grade 2 awards on June 9; and grade 1 awards and last student day Wednesday, June 10. On Saturday, June 6 the early morning monthly public pancake breakfast sponsored by the Dennysville-Edmunds Congregational Church fund raising committee members, was held at the parish hall. I was told there was a total of 78 people in attendance. The fund
would like to thank everyone

CALAIS ADVERTISER, JUNE 18, 2009, PAGE 33 for the help that morning, but most of all they were grateful for the all the people that came out to eat and help make it another successful event.

On Sunday, June 7 services were held at that the Dennys-ville-Edmunds Congregational Church with the new time starting at 9 a.m. & 10 a.m. for the summer.

The spring raffle basket that the sponsored by the Church fundraising committee was won by Clyde Lingley. The committee would like to thank everyone who donated items and especially thanks to everyone who bought tickets.

On Saturday, the 6th, the Cub Scout Pack #136 held a hot dog sale at the corner of Rte 1 and Rte 86 in Den-ysville. They sold hot dogs, chips, drinks, cookies and watermelon to help earn money to go to camp this summer.
They also had a bottle drive that same day. They would like to thank all the people who stopped and bought hot dogs and also who donated bottles as well as cash donations.

On Saturday, June 6, Double T Farm in Perry hosted a show prep clinic for members of the Down East Border Ridley donated her time to help the kids get ready for show season. On Sunday, June 7, the people who showed up to race. The race started at the old Antone store in Pembroke, to Reversing Falls and back again.

St. John Sunday will be held this year at the Char-

ing is brown-grey above and yellow beneath, white under tail coverts, yellow and white wing markings, red spot on wing, yellow tip to tail, black facemask edged in white, and a black chin. In Liz's photos and in my bird book, The Encyclopedia of North American Birds, the bird appears to have a lovely iridescent golden glow. The Encyclopedia says that this is a very sociable bird and is nearly always in quite large flocks, except when the birds pair up to breed. They lay 3-6 blue-gray eggs that incubate for 12-14 days. The young are able to fend for themselves 17-19 days later. Wow! Talk about a short childhood. They are seen in all of Southern Canada and the Northern United States, and have been known to migrate as far south as northern South America. This specie is particularly fond of berries but also eats flying insects, and flower petals. The Bohe-mian Waxwing is similar but with more brownish colors and frequents only the Northwestern United States, Canada and Alaska.

Take heart, the sun is always shining above the clouds.
